PRESS RELEASE

Formal Reading completed, Kahnawà:ke Residency Law goes for enactment on Monday

For immediate release

(Kahnawake – 14, Ohiarí:ha/June 2019) The Kahnawà:ke Legislative Coordinating Commission (KLCC) would like to inform the community that the Formal Reading of the Kahnawà:ke Residency Law (“the Law”) was completed last evening, setting the stage for the expected Enactment of the Law at the duly-convened Council meeting scheduled for this coming Monday, 17 Ohiarí:ha/June 2019.

The Certification of the Process took place immediately following the completion of the Formal Reading. The Reading of the Law into the Record will be made available for viewing on the KLCC website (www.kahnawakemakingdecisions.com).

This Law was developed using the Community Decision Making Process (CDMP) “Urgent Law-Making Process.” Once enacted it will come into force on the date it is published. Provisions related to applications and complaints under this law will only come into force once applicable regulations have been enacted.

Please note that once a Law is enacted using the Urgent Process, it must re-enter the regular CDMP within one year.

The Law can be viewed on the KLCC website. Note, this press release was revised on June 18, 2019.
